FROM THE PASTOR

The priests of the archdiocese will be gathering in Hershey this week for a multi-day workshop. The focus of the workshop will be on strategic planning initiatives in the diocese and a vision for the future. There's certainly a lot to talk about, not only in terms of the present challenges we face, but also in terms of the signs of hope for the future (and there are plenty). Because of the workshop, there will be no Mass here at Holy Cross Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday of this week. Our normal schedule will resume on Friday.

On Saturday, we will celebrate the First Holy Communion of our second-grade parish students. All are welcome to the Mass at 10:00. Please pray for them as they prepare for this moment of grace. As usual, I'll tell them on Saturday to wear their outfits again when they come back on Sunday. So, if you see any of them next week all dressed up, please congratulate them!

You may recall last summer, the air conditioning in the church didn't work all too well. We had technicians out several times over the summer, and there were quite a few recommendations. Over the winter, we did our best to put some of them in place. One big piece that is outstanding is a clean-out of the pipes in the cooling system loops. This apparently hasn't been done in years, or maybe even decades. When the technician opened a valve to get a sample of water, it looked like coffee coming out from all the crud that was dissolved in it. It should be clear. We also appear to have a lot of sediment clogging the pipes, so the treatment should help dissolve that and flush it clean. Hopefully a good cleaning and installation of some filters will help remedy the problems we had last summer. That is scheduled to happen in the next week or so. We had to wait until it warmed up enough to turn the system on, and we didn't want to run it while the heat was also on. We're also working on replacing the air conditioning in the convent, which died amid one of the heat waves we had last summer. It was a bad summer for air conditioning here at the parish. Let's hope this one is much better!

Finally, don't forget next Thursday (May 9) is Ascension Thursday. Masses are at 8:30 am and 7:00 pm!

5th
Sunday
of Easter

Reading I: Acts 9: 26-31

Paul is at first much feared by the disciples because of his past persecution of them. But his conversion led to the peace described here.

Reading II: 1 John 3: 18-24

The test of one's acceptance by God is the willingness to do "what pleases Him," namely loving one another as He commands.

The Gospel: John 15: 1-8

Jesus describes Himself as the true vine, replacing the older image of Israel as the vine. The disciples, representing Jesus in the world, give glory to the Father.

Food Pantry Update

Thank You Holy Cross parishioners for your support every week to help our Neighbors in Need. Your prayers and generosity are very much appreciated.

One of our volunteers recently shared that they wanted to be "More Christian". Well, after reviewing some articles on the Corporal Works of Mercy, I came across the following:

"The Corporal Works of Mercy are found in the teachings of Jesus and give us a model for how we should treat all others, as if they were Christ in disguise. They "are charitable actions by which we help our neighbors in their bodily needs" (USCCA)."

Of course, feeding the hungry is at the top of the list... I know I am preaching to the choir, since you embrace this every week... I just wanted to share.....

Back to our mission, if you are able we are in need of the following: (no glass please) cereal, oatmeal, pancake mix, syrup, mac & cheese, peanut butter, jelly, pasta and pasta sauce, canned meats, fruit, rice, beans, juice, tea and coffee.

If you know anyone in need of food in Delco, please let them know that we are open every Wednesday from 3:30 to 5:30 as a drive-thru behind our school.

God Bless "All" of you,
Friends from the SVDP Holy Cross Food Pantry

Eucharistic Adoration

ABOVE: This picture an adorers took in our chapel while kneeling in front of Jesus, it's the reflection from the stained glass window showing up on the Host.

LOOKING for some peace and quiet? I know the perfect place.

LOOKING for someone you can TRUST? I know Who you can go to.

LOOKING for some answers? I know Who has them.

St. Catherine Labouré. "If you listen God will speak to you, with the good Lord you have to both speak and listen, God always speaks to you when you approach Him plainly and simply".

We have the perfect intimate chapel here at Holy Cross where you can come to accomplish all of the above!

PLEASE consider visiting with Jesus weekdays from 9:00am to 7:00pm.

We are in need of adorers to maintain our current Adoration schedule!

For more information please contact Eileen 610-213-3369

While the Christian spiritual life is about "living Jesus", there is no single path to perfection. Instead, each person must discover with the help of scripture, tradition and the guidance of others what it means to "live Jesus" in daily life. Come see how Christian people have followed Jesus from the earliest days up to the present.
