Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

A popular hobby these days is searching for one's ancestors. You might know of the hit show about it on Public TV. Why the popularity? Many reasons, I'm sure. But one of them is that our ancestors establish our place in the lineup of history. Who is ahead of us in the human procession God continues to form?

Obviously, this subject was a primary interest of Jesus' contemporaries. So, when He stepped out of the ordinary by the things He said about His ancestry, His listeners perked up with questions. The cynics among them took aim.

Our Gospel section from St. John tells us that Jesus ignored the latter and went on to talk about Himself as the "Bread of life." He reminded them about one certainty in this life: eating the miraculous manna in no way prevented their deaths. He was telling them about a certain holy bread that would.

Joining this gospel with our First Reading from the Book of Kings we detect the theme of life as a journey. We often ignore that fact, especially when we're young. Most of the time we focus on the here and now. Just after breakfast we might wonder "What's for dinner?"

Readers of the Bible, at any age, know better. We are journeying to somewhere, and it's just on the other side of our death. Logically, we know that for any journey to be successful we humans need nourishment. So, the smart road traveler has food and drink packed and ready. But what do we pack enroute to eternity? We believers in Jesus know for sure that He has provided both for us in the incomparable Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist.

The modern world has a big problem accepting as true anything which the 5 senses do not deliver to our minds. So much for the existence of angels, for example, which Our Lord surely acknowledged. What He said and did at the Last Supper, replacing the substance of a piece of bread and a cup of wine, and making it easily available to us, is both Gift and Guide for our journey.

Baseball great Yogi Berra once warned, "If you don't know where you're going, you'll wind up somewhere else." The logic may appear muddled, but the truth is clear. Unless we have a positive, worthwhile goal, life can become a series of wrong turns and dead ends. Our Church's saints, our ancestors in the Faith, knew this. Try to learn their stories, and choose a few favorites, so you too will know the way home. Home, that is, to Heaven.

God love you, as He walks with you on your journey.

19th
Sunday in Ordinary
Time

Reading I: 1 Kings 19: 4-8

Elijah runs away from danger and heads to the southern desert. There God provides him food and water for his journey to a sacred place.

Reading II: Ephesians 4: 30- 5:2

Any offense against a brother also offends the Holy Spirit. A Christian should be known for his/her love of neighbor.

The Gospel: John 6: 41-51

Jesus' origins cause a dispute. He ignores it and instead focuses on the Bread from Heaven which is Himself given to them as a guarantee of eternal life.

On Thursday we celebrate The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Pope Pius XII defined it as one of the four Marian dogmas of the Catholic Church in 1950, expressing hope that the belief in the bodily assumption of the Virgin Mary into heaven "will make our belief in our own resurrection stronger and render it more effective."

Starting September 4th, our Food Pantry's hours will change to: 3:45 - 5:30. This will enable less traffic during school closure time.

Our pantry has been very busy over the summer months and we have been Blessed to have enough to meet these needs.

If you are able, we could use the following items (no glass please) including: cereal, oatmeal, peanut butter & jelly, rice, beans, pasta and pasta sauce, mac & cheese, canned meats, and kiddie snacks...

If you know anyone in Delco in need of food, please let me know our hours and that we are still a drive-thru.

Thank you for All Your Support with your prayers and generosity all year.

God Bless You,
Your Friends from the St. Vincent dePaul Holy Cross Food Pantry

CAN YOU NOT SPEND 1 HOUR WITH ME??

The Eucharistic miracles Lanciano in Italy occurred in the 8th century. A certain priest developed doubts about Christ's presence in Eucharist. One day after consecration, during Mass, the wine and bread visibly turned into blood and flesh. This was preserved through the centuries. In 1970-71 and in 1981, scientist Odoardo Linoli, a professor of pathological histology, clinical microscopy and chemistry as well as anatomy, investigated the miracle.

The professor came to the conclusion that the flesh was cardiac tissue containing veins, nerve fibers and arterioles. The blood type matched with the blood type of other Eucharistic miracles, namely AB. The WHO too verified the finding of the Italian doctors, and after 500 examinations expressed the inability of science to explain Eucharistic miracles Lanciano.

WE ARE IN NEED OF ADORERS!
