FROM THE PASTOR

It does not seem possible that next weekend is Labor Day weekend already. It seems like school just let out, and yet, here we are with a new school year about to begin. If you really want to feel like time is moving too fast, this week we received information from the envelope company that it's time to put together the Christmas mailing! I don't even want to think about that yet, but here we are. As we head into the Fall, we have a few big events here at the parish that you'll want to be sure to attend.

At the end of September (9/28-29), we'll be having a Ministry Fair in the vestibule of the church after each of our Masses. This will be an opportunity for you to see what ministries and groups we have at the parish and think about getting involved. More information will follow elsewhere in the bulletin.

On October 5, we will have a Gift Card Bingo in the school gym. This will be a great evening with a lot of fun to be had, so round up some friends to fill a table and come join us.

On November 2, our annual Craft Fair will take place. As always, we'll need lots of help to make that happen. We already have lots of vendors signing up, so I'm sure the gym will be full of great items for sale.

The next Bible Study Series starts on September 16 and 18. They'll be watching another season of The Chosen, which is a great series of videos that give dramatic portrayals of the life of Christ. And if you join the Bible Study, you'll get a chance to see the revamped parish center meeting room that several parishioners worked hard to beautify over the summer. The space has been cleaned, painted, and refreshed with new furniture. It looks amazing.

We'll be starting a new series of First Friday Devotions in October as well. It will be a good opportunity for prayer and some quiet. More info to come.

While we have a lot going on as a parish, new ideas are always welcome. If there's a group or ministry you'd like to see here (and—very important—you're willing to put in the time and effort to get it off the ground and lead it), please let me know.

21st
Sunday in Ordinary
Time

Reading I: Joshua 24: 1-2a, 15-17, 18b

Joshua summons all the tribes at Shechem and asks them who which god they will serve. Happily, they chose Yahweh and none of the idols of the nations.

Reading II: Ephesians 5: 21-32, or 5:2a, 25-32

Let us profess our faith in Jesus who gave Himself up for us all on the Cross.

The Gospel: John 6: 6-69

The desertion of the many disciples was a prelude to the coming paschal mystery. Our Lord's teaching of the Eucharist was "hard saying" for them. St. Peter speaks for us when He asked, "Master, to whom shall we go?"

Thank God for Holy Cross!

The Corner

Brought to you by your Evangelization Team

Tuesday is the feast day of St. Monica. She is recognized as the patron saint of mothers. It took many years and many tears to bring her son back to the Catholic faith. We know her son, St. Augustine, one of the four Great Fathers of the West and a Doctor of the Church, whose feast day is tomorrow! Never stop praying for those who have gone astray.

RCIA at Holy Cross

The Rite of Christian initiation for Adults is the process for people of other faith traditions, those not baptized or not baptized and baptized Catholics who want to refresh their faith or complete their Sacraments.

RCIA is a journey where a person encounters Jesus Christ and begins the conversion to the Catholic Faith. Each meeting is designed to stimulate a person both intellectually and spiritually. We explore numerous aspects of the Catholic Faith through the bible and other reading material.

If you are interested in exploring your faith or know someone is looking to renew their faith in the Church, please contact Deacon Tom Taylor at deacontom2011@gmail.com

We will show this at 2 different times, so PICK THE TIME that is best for you.

When: Mondays, September 16 thru November 4 - -- 7:00 – 8:30 PM - in the Holy Cross Parish Center

Food Pantry Update

It's hard to believe that our children will be back in school very soon.

Starting September 4th, our Food Pantry's hours will change to: 3:45 - 5:30. This will enable less traffic during school closure time.

Our pantry has been very busy over the summer months and we have been Blessed to have enough to meet these needs. Thanks to all of you for your prayers and donations and also St. Annie's, St. Francis of Assisi, and the Franklin Mint Credit Union, St. Kevin's Knights of Columbus and Williamsburg Dental for their toothbrush and toothpaste donations.

If you are able, we could use the following items (no glass please) including: cereal, oatmeal, peanut butter & jelly, rice, beans, pasta and pasta sauce, mac & cheese, canned meats, spaghetti, soup, kiddie snacks and personal items (deodorant, soap, shampoo).

If you know anyone in Delco in need of food, please let them know our hours and that we are still a drive-thru.

Thank you for All You Do to support our pantry all year.

God Bless You,
Your Friends from the St. Vincent dePaul Holy Cross Food Pantry

CAN YOU NOT SPEND 1 HOUR WITH ME??

The Eucharistic miracles Lanciano in Italy occurred in the 8th century. A certain priest developed doubts about Christ's presence in Eucharist. One day after consecration, during Mass, the wine and bread visibly turned into blood and flesh. This was preserved through the centuries. In 1970-71 and in 1981, scientist Odoardo Linoli, a professor of pathological histology, clinical microscopy and chemistry as well as anatomy, investigated the miracle.

The professor came to the conclusion that the flesh was cardiac tissue containing veins, nerve fibers and arterioles. The blood type matched with the blood type of other Eucharistic miracles, namely AB. The WHO too verified the finding of the Italian doctors, and after 500 examinations expressed the inability of science to explain Eucharistic miracles Lanciano.
