FROM THE PASTOR

I always feel like Advent as a season is really short and goes by too quickly. This year, the “Fourth Week” of Advent is only about 16 hours long, which makes the season even shorter and go by even faster.

We have extra opportunities for the Sacrament of Penance during Advent. The Sacrament will be celebrated Thursday mornings from 7am-8am (Dec. 7, 14, and 21). There will also be an opportunity on Monday, December 18, from 7-8pm, along with our normal Saturday schedule.

This Friday, December 8, is the Feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a Holy Day of Obligation and the national patronal feast of the United States of America. Masses are at 8:30 am and 7:00 pm.

Speaking of Holy Days, let's address question that tends to come up when Christmas falls on a Monday, which of course means Christmas Eve is Sunday night. Every time this happens, people tend to ask whether going to Mass on the evening of Sunday the 24th counts for both Sunday and Christmas. The answer is no.

There is an obligation to attend Mass for the 4th Sunday of Advent. And there is an obligation to attend Mass for Christmas. That requires attending two Masses; there's no “double dipping.” Here at Holy Cross, Masses for the 4th Sunday of Advent will be Saturday, 12/23 at 4:30 and Sunday, 12/24 at 8:30 and 11:00. Masses for Christmas will be Sunday, 12/24 at 4:30 and Monday, 12/25 at 8:30 and 11:00. (Note that we have had a later evening Mass on Christmas Eve the past couple years, but we are unable to do that this year. That Mass was the lowest attended of all the Christmas Masses, and we are limited to the number of Masses a priest can say in a day.) So now that we've pre-emptively answered that question, please make your plans now to celebrate both the 4th Sunday of Advent and Christmas Day amid all the other celebrations of Christmas.

Also, make sure you plan to join us next Sunday for our second annual Lessons and Carols concert. The choir is working quite hard to give us a beautiful performance. You won't want to miss it!

1st Sunday of Advent

Reading I: Isaiah 63:16b-17; 64: 2-7

A wish for Yahweh to come down from heaven and help cleanse the nation of its guilt and sins.

Reading II: 1 Corinthians 1: 3-9

Paul thanks the Lord for all the gifts the community has received. He asks for His help in keeping them firm in the faith.

The Gospel: Mark 13: 33-37

Jesus warns His listeners to be alert, for no one knows the time of the Lord's return. Watchfulness regarding the Kingdom of God is essential.

AWAKE!! Advent is here, and it is a time of preparation that directs our hearts and minds to Christ's second coming at the end of time, and the anniversary of Our Lord's birth on Christmas. He is our best, and yet most humble Christmas present. So as St Paul says, "It is the hour now for you to awake from sleep. For our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed." ---Romans 13:11

School News

November is here and so are the sights and sounds of autumn. We have had a great month with our clubs running and giving our students some wonderful activities and possibilities to participate at school. Our faculty, staff and volunteers are happy to bring back old and new clubs for our students. We are enjoying the extra time we get to spend with our students as they learn and explore these new opportunities.

The virtue that we are asking students to practice this month is Respect: The process or result of following rules to fairly judge and listen to authority. We have wonderful students here at Holy Cross and we know this will not be a hard task for them to follow.

This year each student will have the opportunity to contribute a spiritual donation of a Work of Mercy or good deed to write down and offer up to God at the Thanksgiving Prayer Basket. This is something special for all our students to participate in so they can have an opportunity to be closer to the Lord by offering their personal Work of Mercy or good deed.

We are also continuing the tradition of our Thanksgiving food drive to help the less fortunate. Each student, if they can, is asked to make a donation of a boxed or canned food for the Parish Food Pantry.

Giving Tuesday is here. If you would like to make a donation to our school, please see our website www.hcscrusaders.com

Thank you to all parishioners who help to support our wonderful school. We continue to pray for all of you each day.

Eucharistic Adoration

The Eucharist is described in the Catechism as the "source and summit" of our faith. Finding the time to go to Adoration can be difficult. But if you can make it happen, committing to regular Adoration with an open heart can have some surprising results.

A Holy Hour before the Most Blessed Sacrament repairs for evils of the world. (St.John Paul II)

A Holy hour makes our souls more glorious and beautiful in heaven. (Mother Teresa)

The greatest love story of all time is contained in a tiny white host. (Venerable Fulton Sheen)

I ask everyone to intensify in love and devotion to the Eucharistic Jesus. (Pope Benedict XVI)

We are in need of visitors and hourly adorers to maintain our current adoration schedule. Please consider keeping Jesus company in our intimate chapel here at Holy Cross Parish which is open weekdays 9:00am to 7:00pm. For more information, call Eileen at 610.213-3369.
