Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

You may know the long-running TV series 'Law and Order' and its trademark 'plink plunk' sound between scenes. Each show featured an incident of law violation followed by the court trial. Evidently a winning formula as the franchise has continued to produce spin-offs.

Generally speaking, in real life, most people prefer to live under authentic law and consistent order. It's the criminal element among us who "ply their trade," so to speak.

Joseph and Mary, the holy parents of a Holy Child, certainly knew the law of their nation and kept them in good order. That is why they entered the great Temple on a day long ago to participate in the established rite of presentation that all Hebrew mothers had to go through forty days after the birth of their male child. Obviously, Mary did not have to undergo any purification, but she, with Joseph, did so to preclude any scandal. So, in all humility they lined up with the other couples and their boys.

The topic of law and order enters our thinking from time to time. It often proceeds from "something out there" to something personal. We believe that Our Lord Jesus provided us guidelines. He fulfilled the Old Testament Law. He passed on the same to what would eventually become His Catholic Church through His Apostles and their successors.

Twenty-one centuries later the obligation to obey remains, even if the idea of obedience these days is culturally foreign.

Sad to say, a growing number of those who call themselves Catholic have chosen not to agree. So, we note their absence from Sunday Mass in a downward trend that underscores the prediction of our late pope Benedict XVI that the Church will grow smaller and poorer.

It is difficult to understand how a rational person could decide to ignore Christ's words 'Do this in memory of Me,' spoken at the Last Supper to His Apostles is beyond the scope of this reflection. I will just say the words "relativism" and "self-referential morality" for the time being. You can explore them.

Honestly though, a person's bias against law in general certainly threatens order. How safe would it be to cross a busy street? Or board a plane? Or ride a New York City subway?

I began this piece with reference to a popular TV show. Let me close with some homespun wisdom I found that recognizes the problem. "Many people believe in law and order as long as they can lay down the law and give the orders."

God love you and give you His peace.

Presentation of the Lord

Reading I: Malachi 3: 1-4

The Lord's messenger (Elijah) will make Israel ready for the Lord's coming by returning the people to covenant obedience.

Reading II: Hebrews 2: 14-18

Jesus was like us in all things but sin. He took on our nature in order to die so that He could "rob" Satan of his claim over our lives.

The Gospel: Luke 2: 22-40, or 22-32

Mary and Joseph fulfill the Law of Purification for all new mothers, not because they needed to be cleansed, but because they wanted to avoid giving others scandal. The elderly Simeon calls the Child "the Light to all nations."

Invite someone to First Friday Devotions!

School News

Our first week in 2025 is done. It was an interesting start to the new year. We had a snowstorm, a new gym floor, and some internet issues. It was great to see the students and all of our teachers and staff happy to return and get back in the swing. It was a nice beginning to the New Year, even though we rolled with the internet outages, the printer par-functioning, and the arctic temperatures. If God brings you to it, He brings you through it.

We have a lot of events coming up, especially during Catholic Schools Week which starts on Sunday, January 26, with our Open House, from 12 pm until 1 pm. We invite all our parishioners, families, and students to stop by and see what wonderful things are happening at Holy Cross School. Meet our teachers and tour our school. We have a lot of fun activities planned for this week of celebration. On Tuesday, January 28, we will have a preview of the Book Fair, and our sales will start on Wednesday, January 29. We welcome all to come and shop. We also have the Science Fair, the Talent Show, Student and Teacher appreciation days, and some special activities daily.

In the month of Catholic Schools Week, we celebrate the Feast Day of St. John Neumann. We need to remember him, because St. John Neumann, as our 4th Bishop of Philadelphia, created the Catholic Schools in Philadelphia due to the turmoil and refusal of some public schools to teach immigrant children from Catholic countries. This created a demand for facilities where education could coexist with spiritual training and Catholic culture.

Food Pantry Update

Happy New Year to all. We were able to help many over the Christmas season. The Acme provided us with a huge donation that covered the food for our Christmas dinner distribution. Yeah Acme.

Also, our friends at ShopRite are providing us with dry goods and bakery items each week. What a blessing.

Over the holidays, our clients received a rare treat (something most may take for granted) an assortment of mops, dustpans, buckets and brooms). Our Neighbors in Need were able to pick an item and you would have thought they received gold... Be Satori, based locally in Springfield provided these goodies. Thank You.

Clam Tavern provided a van full of food and Nirvana provides us with pet food All Year long. Many Blessings for their generosity and All of our year.

If you know anyone in need of food in Delco, please let them know that we are open Wednesdays from 3:45 to 5:30.

We continued to be humbled by the generosity and prayers within our Community. When we wonder if we will have enough.... we always seem to have what we need. We never take anything for granted and we are so Grateful for all of you.

If you are able, we need (no glass please) canned meats / tuna, stews, chef boyardee, pasta sauce, pasta, oatmeal, cereal, peanut butter, jelly, mac & cheese, and rice.

God Bless All of you,
Our SVDP Holy Cross Food Pantry Volunteers

The Incredible Christmas Eucharistic Miracle of 2013

On December 25, 2013, the St. Hyacinth's Shrine in Legnica, Poland celebrated Christmas Mass.

During communion, a host fell to the floor. Following the Church's instructions to respect sacred species, the priest placed the Eucharist in a container of holy water and kept it in the tabernacle.

However, two weeks later, the priest discovered that the host turned red. He told the bishop, and a commission was established to observe the phenomenon.

Bishop Zbigniew Kerlikowski of Legnica later released a statement regarding the Forensic Medicine Department's analysis results.

"In the histopathological image, fragments of tissue were found, which contained fragmented particles of striated muscle tissue. The whole image is very similar to that of a cardiac muscle ... that shows changes typical of an agony. DNA shows that the tissue is of human origin.

This Eucharistic miracle of Christmas 2013 seems to bring together three feats that Jesus accomplished for our salvation: a God incarnate and born as a little baby, a God who gives himself for us in the sacrifice of the Cross, and a God always waiting for us in the Eucharist.

ARE YOU SURE YOU CAN'T SPARE JUST ONE HOUR WITH JESUS IN OUR INTIMATE CHAPEL????
