FROM THE PASTOR

Here we are on the first weekend of February already. It's a short month, but there will be a lot of activity here at Holy Cross. This week, the envisioning team will meet again to discern some key goals and priorities as we continue with our Next Generation Parish initiative. Fresh off of a busy Catholic Schools' Week, our school leadership will be meeting soon with our strategic planning team to continue our work on ensuring the school's long-term success. The Finance Council met last week to discuss the school's budget for next year. You may recall in the past few financial reports, our school has been running with significant operating deficits over the past few years. Through the work of the strategic planning team, we're turning that around.

A few weeks ago, the Springfield Ambulance Corps sent a letter to all the local churches. February is National Heart Month. The Ambulance Corps would like to help us be ready to respond in the event that someone were to suffer a cardiac emergency. Studies show that in cases of cardiac arrest, starting CPR right away increases the patient's chances of survival. The Ambulance Company is offering to give some basic lessons to parishioners on how to do bystander CPR--i.e. start chest compressions until first responders arrive. As I understand it, it would not be a formal CPR class, but an opportunity after Mass to practice doing chest compressions on a manikin. Members of the Ambulance Corps would give a quick demo and then let people practice for a bit. Very informal. They will be here on Sunday, February 19. We're still working out more details, but I did want to let you know of the date. Let's hope this is a skill that none of us will ever have to use.

Ash Wednesday is coming up on February 22! It's hard to believe Lent is almost here. Speaking of Lent, the Archdiocese is running an initiative to reinvigorate the Sacrament of Penance this year. The goal is that on March 10 and 11, there will be several extra hours of confessions available in specific churches in the Archdiocese. Holy Cross was asked to be one of the host parishes for this event. (Of course I said yes; you don't say no when the folks downtown ask you to do something.) More details to come, but it's a privilege for us to be asked to host something like this.

The parish fundraising committee is hard at work planning some special events over the year ahead. More information and some save-the-dates will be in the bulletin soon.

Have a great February!

Ordinary
Time

Reading I: Isaiah 58: 7-10

The author lists six ways for light to rise in the darkness. St. Matthew will cite these as the bases for our final judgment. (Mt. 25:31ff)

Reading II: I Corinthians 2: 1-5

The mystery of God is revealed in Christ crucified. Paul adds that he will not use any clever arguments or rhetorical devices to soften this truth.

The Gospel: Matthew 5: 13-16

Jesus uses salt and light as compliments made to His hearers in this early section of the Sermon on the Mount.

St John Paul II established this feast in 1992.

Holy Cross School News

Catholic Schools Week was a success !!!! Our students enjoyed all the fun activities that our teachers had planned.

The week started with our balloon columns in Holy Cross colors to greet students as they arrived in the car line. Thank you to our generous Home and School who made this such a nice surprise and great start to the week. We have a wonderful Home and School Association and we appreciate all they do to make Holy Cross such a great place to be.

Thank you to all our hard-working teachers and staff who put so much time and effort into this week. Our book fair as always was a success, as well as our special person day. We had a great turn out from parents and special persons. Our visitors were treated to snacks and a tour of our school. Thank you to all our parents who generously sent in snacks and drinks to make this day so special.

Our second-grade class continues to prepare for the Sacrament of Reconciliation which will happen on Saturday February 11.

Our 7th grade students are also preparing to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation on Sunday, March 5. Please keep our students and their families in your prayers .

Thank you to Dan Cardell and Roman McAveney who represented Holy Cross Students at the 8:30 Mass on Sunday January 29. Dan gave a wonderful speech about what a Catholic education means to him.

Thank you parishioners and parents who make the gift of Catholic Education possible for our students of Holy Cross School.
