FROM THE PASTOR

Happy Catholic Schools' Week! Students from Holy Cross School will be speaking at the Saturday Evening and Sunday Masses to talk about our parish school and the experiences they've had at Holy Cross. They represent the 260 children who are entrusted to our school each day to be formed in the faith and given a quality education.

Our school is a success because of our amazing, hard-working administration, faculty, and staff. Dr. Mary Rose Worrilow leads the whole school as our principal. Ellen Spurrier coordinates enrollment and tuition management—tracking applications, tuition, and financial aid while coming up with all kinds of ideas to promote and market our school. Sheila Moeller is our faithful receptionist, and I'm not sure how she does her job with only two hands and two feet. In the parish office, Betty McIntyre keeps us compliant with child protection laws and policies, and Terry Carey makes sure the lights stay on and everyone gets his or her paychecks (which are not nearly big enough for all the hard work everyone does). In our classrooms you have Alexandra Leicht, Deirdre Hines, McKinnon Coleman, and Danielle McGuigan working with our littlest ones in Pre-K and Kindergarten, assisted by our amazing aides: Sue Ottaviano, Barbara Matticola, Eileen Gardner, and Diana Oropeza. Shannon Whalen, Makayla Palmer, Morgan DiChiacchio, and Winnie Daciw make our lower grades places of fun, creativity, and learning. Upstairs, Nicole McNichol, Lori Williams, Mark Hager, and Alexis O'Toole guide our middle schoolers and get them ready for high school. Bill Ciavarelli, Evan Campbell, Joyce Sanetrik, Stephanie Eisenman, and Susan Packer liven things up and provide extra help as our physical education, music, art, technology, and learning support teachers. And Mike Thompson and Ron Gardner keep the building clean and in good working order. Without these fine men and women, Holy Cross School would not function.

Nor would our school function without the help and support of our wonderful parishioners. Members of the Knights of Columbus have been very generous—putting up fresh coats of paint and giving scholarships to our graduates. A number of you are helping us offer tuition assistance by using our scrip program—we could always use more people using this program. And so many of you support the various fundraising activities that our school does throughout the year. Thank you, thank you, thank you!

Changing gears, a reminder that this Tuesday, January 31, at 7:00 pm, we will offer a special Mass for the happy repose of the soul of Pope Benedict XVI on the one-month anniversary of his death. I hope you can join us.

4th
Sunday in Ordinary
Time

Reading I: Zephaniah 2: 3, 3: 12-13

The prophet speaks of a moral recovery involving the "purging of the arrogant." Evil is associated in the prophet's mind with wealth and arrogance.

Reading II: I Corinthians 1: 26-31

The community must not adhere to worldly standards. God did not choose those whom the world might have chosen to carry out His plan.

The Gospel: Matthew 5: 1-2a

A beatitude is "an exclamation of congratulations that recognizes an existing state of happiness." Jesus claims the poor, the mourners, and the hungry as His mission to Israel. The rewards will be realized in the kingdom of God.

The Corner

Brought to you by your Evangelization Team

A charming morning prayer from St Columba...

"Alone with none but Thee, my God I journey on my way.

What need I fear, when Thou art near

Than if a host did round me stand."
