FROM THE PASTOR

Today we celebrate the Solemn Feast of Corpus Christi—the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Fittingly, on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of this week, a movie titled Jesus Thirsts: The Miracle of the Eucharist will be played in theaters across America. According to the National Catholic Register, the movie “will take viewers on a journey to rediscover and revive the importance of the Eucharist through dialogue with notable Catholic figures by exploring the biblical origins of the Eucharist and sharing personal stories from those whose lives have been impacted by the Blessed Sacrament.”

Locally, the film will be shown at 4:00 and 7:00 on Tuesday, June 4, and Wednesday, June 5 at the Regal Edgemont Square on West Chester Pike in Newtown Square. For more information, you can go to <https://jesusthirstsfilm.com>. It’s always nice to see good, faith-based movies in the theaters. The way to ensure that continues to happen is for us to show the theaters there is a demand for them.

On Wednesday, our 8th graders will officially graduate from Holy Cross School. We wish them all well as they head on to high school next year. Friday is the last day of school for this year. I’m not sure who is counting down the hours more: the students or the teachers.

We’ve had a few ups and down in the school this year—just as any school would have in any year. But we have a lot for which we can be proud. Thanks to the dedication of Mr. Salvatore and a committee of teachers, the school successfully completed the reaccreditation process this year. The hard work of our students and teachers paid off with higher standardized test scores. We started bringing a grade to daily Mass every day to help them grow in their familiarity with the Mass. Our enrollment numbers remain pretty strong. Good things are happening at Holy Cross School!

That being said, I’m sure everyone is looking forward to a nice break to refresh and recharge. And the way time seems to be flying by, they’ll be back in the classrooms before we know it. (Just don’t say that to our teachers and students right now.)

Corpus
Christi

Reading I: Exodus 24: 3-8

The “Old Covenant” between Yahweh and His people is ratified. Moses sprinkles the blood of young bulls both on the altar and on the people.

Reading II: Hebrews 9: 11-15

The sacrifice of Jesus constitutes a truly unblemished sacrificial offering.

The Gospel: Mark 14: 12-16, 22-26

The Apostles secure the pre-arranged meal setting. The meal previews Christ’s death. What He does with the bread and wine seals the new covenant.

The Corner

Brought to you by your Evangelization Team

Today we celebrate the glorious Feast of The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi).

Saint Paul told the Corinthians "For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes."

---1 Corinthians 11:26

"Both bread and wine are made by gathering the many and crushing them into a unified substance. Crushing many grains of wheat and molding them into one substance makes bread. Crushing grapes into juice and letting the juice age and ferment makes wine. The Church which is the Body of Christ, is made up of the "many" who are made one through the sacrifice of Christ. In the preparatory rites of the Liturgy of the Eucharist (which literally means "giving thanks"), we prepare to offer ourselves, along with the priest, to God the Father in union with the one Sacrifice of Christ."

Food Pantry Update

Thank You Holy Cross parishioners for your support every week to help our Neighbors in Need. Your prayers and generosity are very much appreciated.

One of our volunteers recently shared that they wanted to be "More Christian". Well, after reviewing some articles on the Corporal Works of Mercy, I came across the following:

"The Corporal Works of Mercy are found in the teachings of Jesus and give us a model for how we should treat all others, as if they were Christ in disguise. They "are charitable actions by which we help our neighbors in their bodily needs" (USCCA)."

Of course, feeding the hungry is at the top of the list... I know I am preaching to the choir, since you embrace this every week... I just wanted to share.....

Back to our mission, if you are able we are in need of the following: (no glass please) cereal, oatmeal, pancake mix, syrup, mac & cheese, peanut butter, jelly, pasta and pasta sauce, canned meats, fruit, rice, beans, juice, tea and coffee.

If you know anyone in need of food in Delco, please let them know that we are open every Wednesday from 3:30 to 5:30 as a drive-thru behind our school.

God Bless "All" of you,
Friends from the SVDP Holy Cross Food Pantry

Eucharistic Adoration

ABOVE: This picture an adorer took in our chapel while kneeling in front of Jesus, it's the reflection from the stained glass window showing up on the Host.

LOOKING for some peace and quiet? I know the perfect place.

LOOKING for someone you can TRUST? I know Who you can go to.

LOOKING for some answers? I know Who has them.

St. Catherine Laboure. "If you listen God will speak to you, with the good Lord you have to both speak and listen, God always speaks to you when you approach Him plainly and simply".

We have the perfect intimate chapel here at Holy Cross where you can come to accomplish all of the above!

PLEASE consider visiting with Jesus weekdays from 9:00am to 7:00pm.

We are in need of adorers to maintain our current Adoration schedule!
