Oh, the irony! Last Sunday at the 11:00 Mass, we had a beautiful celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation. Just about everything went off without a hitch, except for one thing: from what I can tell, the collection didn't get taken up. Oops. Here's the irony: the first reading was all about making sacrificial gifts back to the Lord. "The priest shall receive the basket from you and shall set it in front of the altar of the Lord, your God.... Then you shall declare before the Lord, your God, '...I have now brought you the first fruits of the product of the soil which you, O Lord, have given me.'" The day that our ritual gesture around the collection dovetails perfectly with the readings, we forget it! Sheesh.

Aside from that, everything else went very well. The students being confirmed had their jitters, but they were fine, even when Bishop Senior was asking them questions before Mass to see how well-prepared they were. (And great job to those who volunteered to answer the Bishop's questions!) All in all, a great celebration, with a big thank you to all who worked behind-the-scenes to make it happen.

As of my writing this, 29 people have completed the Disciple Maker Index Survey. That's a good quick start, but we need to get a lot more feedback. Have you taken the survey? If you haven't, then please go to holycrosscatholics.org and click on the graphic to take the survey. If you have, then maybe your next challenge is to reach out to someone (a friend, a neighbor, a family member) and see if he or she has taken it. Let's see if we can get that number up higher for next week!

As you may know, I was only at my previous parish assignment for about a year when I was asked to be the pastor here at Holy Cross. That meant packing everything up and moving, again. It also meant confronting the reality of having a few boxes full of stuff that I hadn't ever unpacked from when I moved there. Made me wonder, do I really need this stuff? (And we can just gloss over that some of those boxes were actually things that never got unpacked at the prior parish either...). I think many of us have some excess stuff that we no longer need and would like to get rid of. So, let's do something about it. On Saturday, April 23, we will have a Community Flea Market at Holy Cross. If you're interested in renting a space, please see the form on our website, or contact HCDevelopmentFund@gmail.com for more information.

The Corner

Brought to you by your Evangelization Team

Remember, God hears everything!

Your "...discordant grumblings are not secret. Therefore guard against profitless grumbling, and from calumny (calumny: a false and slanderous statement) withhold your tongues; For a stealthy utterance will not go unpunished, and a lying mouth destroys the soul." ---Wisdom 1:10-11

Be mindful of your tongue, it's the same tongue you use to praise God.

Three Parish Book Club

The Three Parish Book Club's next meeting will take place on Wednesday, March 30, at 7:00 p.m. at Holy Cross Parish Center. ### Food Pantry Update

With the increase in goods, the pantry is busier than ever. We have been working with some food agencies to help provide some fresh foods and Wawa is helping with their Philly Food Rescue program... this agency is not just for Philly but it's in our community too.

If you are able, we are in need of dry goods including: cereal, pasta sauce, pasta, peanut butter, jelly, pancake mix, syrup, beans, canned meats, spaghetti, juice, kiddie treats, toilet paper and paper towels.

Our Lady of Fatima 6th grade Confirmation class ran a food drive last week. Thanks so much for all the goodies. Also, St. Kevin's Knights of Columbus is running a food drive for our pantry on March 20. It's wonderful how our parishioners and our surrounding churches are supporting us. Our Neighbors in need are always sharing how appreciative they are for your generosity and support.

If you know anyone in need of food, please let them know our pantry is open on Wednesdays from 3:30 to 5:30.
Thanks for all you do and your prayers.
God Bless,
Your Friends from the St. Vincent dePaul Society Holy Cross Conference

Fast and Abstinence and Other Acts of Penance for Lent

The Bishops of the United States prescribe, as minimal obligation, that all persons who are fourteen years of age and older are bound to abstain from eating meat on Ash Wednesday, March 2, 2022, on all the Fridays of Lent and Good Friday (with the exception of Friday, March 25, The Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord). Further, all persons eighteen years of age and older, up to and including their fifty-ninth birthday, are bound to fast by limiting themselves to a single full meal on Ash Wednesday and on Good Friday, while the other two meals on those days are to be light. All the faithful are encouraged, when possible, to participate at Mass and to receive the Holy Eucharist daily, to celebrate frequently the Sacrament of Penance, to undertake spiritual reading, especially the study of the Sacred Scriptures, and to participate in parish Lenten devotions as well as Lenten education programs. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is especially recommended.

**March Watchlist****

Here are some suggestions for what to watch in March. Since March is the Season of Lent, we are recommending many Lenten programs.

For Kids: This is under the "Kids" banner; "Lent with Brother Francis."

For Teens: the "Real + True" banner; "Real + True (English)". Continue this series with Unit 2.

For Families: "The Search" banner; continue this series. Also, in conjunction with our in-person Parish Bible Study, "The Sacraments" banner has "Forgiven: the Transforming Power of Confession." And "Living Lent as a Family" is a 4-part series; it's under the "FORMED Now" banner, however the easiest way to find it is to do a search for "Living Lent as a Family" and it will pop right up.

"Movie Night" banner: "Don Bosco: The True Story of the Apostle of Youth." Also, continue any of "The Bible Collection" series.

Crab Cake Sales are BACK! The Knights of Columbus at St. Kevin's will be having an Easter Crab Cake Sale. All proceeds will be donated to UKRAINIAN RELIEF.
