“Turn, turn, turn (To Everything There Is a Season)!” Well, whether one thinks of Peter Seeger who wrote and recorded the original song in the 1950s, the more popular version by “The Byrds,” or the very words of the Book of Ecclesiastes (Chapter 3) upon which the song is based, this is no doubt that the seasons change. There is a time for everything and, at the same time, there is a God that transcends time and is eternal. We have now arrived at Memorial Day Weekend. As we recognize our Armed Forces personnel and remember especially those who have given their lives in service to our country, this weekend also marks the unofficial start of the summer season. Something else of significance happens on this Memorial Day as well. Based on the most current federal and state guidance, we will experience the lifting of most of the COVID restrictions that have been in place. In church that will mean that things will be getting back to some normalcy. Roped off pews will be opened as will other areas of the church. Masks will be optional for those vaccinated and recommended for those unvaccinated while respecting everyone’s individual preference. Holy Water will make a comeback as will the various ministries at Mass. In the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, the Sign of Peace and the Distribution of the Precious Blood will continue to be omitted at this time. Also, at this time, the Sunday Mass obligation continues to be suspended; however, everyone that is able is strongly encouraged to attend Mass in-person, because “Nothing Compares to Being There.” Videotaping of Mass will also be reduced. For those unable to attend Mass in church, the Archdiocese continues to offer the live streaming of Sunday Mass from the Cathedral of SS. Peter and Paul and the Eternal Word Television Network continues to offer daily Mass on their network as well as online. The past months have been challenging to say the least. Everyone at Holy Cross, from parishioners to staff to school faculty and students, deserves much credit. Thank you! The start of the return to a “new normalcy” will have its challenges as well, I’m sure, with a change in parish leadership being perhaps at the top of that list, but as the challenges of COVID were met and overcome together, so too, the challenge of getting back to “full speed.” It is all a part of the change of the seasons as everything turns, turns, turns while recognizing that there is a God that transcends all seasons and remains forever! Happy Memorial Day Weekend and a special thank you to all of our veterans and active service personnel!

Peace!
Fr. Wilson

FOOD PANTRY

Food Pantry Update:

It's hard to believe the food pantry has been operating as a drive-thru for a year. COVID may have slowed us down; however, with the help of our Holy Cross school children with providing huge donations from various food drives (especially around Thanksgiving and Christmas), the support from you (both with food and prayers), our benefactors, surrounding parishes, the Knights, and our dedicated volunteers, we continue to help our neighbors in need.

If you are able, we are in need of peanut butter, canned meats and tuna, mac & cheese, beans, pasta sauce (no glass, please), canned fruit, pancake mix and syrup, cereal, and paper products. There are tin bins outside the food pantry door or you can leave your donations in the vestibule at church.

If you know any Delco residents in need of food, please let them know our pantry is open every Wednesday, from 3:30 to 6:00.

God Bless All of You,
Your Friends from the SVDP Food Pantry Team

Saint Joseph Novena

Let us pray.

O Saint Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary and Foster Father of the Divine Child, Jesus, you were entrusted as the protective guardian of the Holy Family in Nazareth.

Give today this same protection to the family of the Church in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia.

Intercede with Christ before the Father of us all:

For the clergy and faithful,
For married couples and single men and women,
For all those in the consecrated life,
For families and young people,
For the poor, the lonely and neglected,
For all the sick, suffering and dying.
For a deepening of our spiritual life,
For a strengthening of the moral life,
For a bolder witness to the truth of the Gospel.

For all of us, Saint Joseph, with you as our firm example, may we remain confident in the plan of the Father for us, with lives of faith rooted in the saving death and resurrection of his Son and ever faithful to the demands of the Christian life with the grace of the Holy Spirit.

Through Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Saint Joseph, patron and protector of the Universal Church. Pray for us!
