Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

“Readiness!” We say things like “The minor league pitcher is ready for the majors.” Or “The med student is now ready for hospital duty” Or, “The young priest is ready to be a pastor.” All these opinions revolve around our understanding of readiness. The contributing factors include our methods of judgment and discernment, which always involve at least a bit of opinion.

How different it is when we judge ourselves as not ready. Then we grow cautious about taking on a new project in our lives, or even accepting a new truth about ourselves. Particularly in matters of health. I believe that is all very natural. Our Lord is keenly aware of this, as He is about everything. Yet He still wants us to adopt a sense of readiness about our next life. This may be something new for us, especially if we are afraid of it.

In the well-known parable Jesus tells us this weekend, He makes use of a unique situation. Biblical scholars tell us that “the precise matrimonial ceremony is impossible to reconstruct.” All we really must know is that rabbis at the time used nuptial imagery to describe the relationship between God and His people.” So does this greatest of all rabbis.

Obviously, Our Lord recommends being vigilant about His calling us home to heaven. It’s a “November kind of thing.” But vigil-keeping becomes wearying. But may I suggest that Our Lord is speaking more about being ready?

Readiness is a bit different from vigil-keeping. It happens by a steady and consistent effort. It has a goal in mind. We believe we can reach it. The natural world in November invites us to ponder our death, with its often gray days and cold rain in the presence of leafless trees. But at the same time, we can remain hopeful and trusting of Our Lord’s words about our future resurrection to eternally bright days. As He said to St. Thomas: “Blessed are those who have not seen but have believed.”

An Indiana cemetery has a tombstone over 100 years old that bears this epitaph: “Pause, Strangers, when you pass by; As you are now, so once was I. As I am now, soon you will be, so prepare for death and follow me.”

An unknown passerby had read these words and scratched this reply below them “To follow you I’m not content; Until I know which way you went.”

God loves you and give you His peace.

32nd
Sunday in Ordinary
Time

Reading I: Wisdom 6: 12-16

The author acknowledges the “resplendent” attribute of wisdom as coming from God. To be close to God is to reign and be “free from care.”

Reading-ii: 1 Thessalonians 4: 13-18, or 4: 13-14

We await Jesus’ return in glory, when the dead and those still alive will meet the Lord and always be with Him.

The Gospel: Matthew: 25: 1-13

The ultimate wisdom is that of being awake and ready for the Lord’s call to the next life. The Responsorial Psalm puts it clearly: “My soul thirsts for You, O Lord, and “I will bless You while I live.”

School News

November is here and so are the sights and sounds of autumn. We have had a great month with our clubs running and giving our students some wonderful activities and possibilities to participate at school. Our faculty, staff and volunteers are happy to bring back old and new clubs for our students. We are enjoying the extra time we get to spend with our students as they learn and explore these new opportunities.

Our virtue that we are asking students to practice this month is Respect: The process or result of following rules to fairly judge and listen to authority.

This year each student will have the opportunity to contribute a spiritual donation of a Work of Mercy or good deed to write down and offer up to God at the Thanksgiving Prayer Basket. This is something special for all our students to participate in so they can have an opportunity to be closer to the Lord by offering their personal Work of Mercy or good deed.

We are also continuing the tradition of our Thanksgiving food drive to help the less fortunate. Each student, if they are able to, is asked to make a donation of a boxed or canned food for the Parish Food Pantry.

The feast days this month include: All Saints, All Souls, St. Charles Borromeo, Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome, St. Leo the Great, St. Martin of Tours, St. Josaphat, St. Elizabeth of Hungary, Solemnity of Christ, King of the Universe, The Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, St. Cecilia, St. Andrew Dũng-Lạc and Companions. This will signal the end of Ordinary Time, and Our Liturgical New Year Begins with Advent on Sunday, December 3.

Through our practice of the virtue of and other works this month we are reaching out to a friend who needs to know that God loves them, as we all continue to grow the family and spirit of Holy Cross School. I continue to pray for our school and surrounding communities and wish all of you a joyful and wonderful Thanksgiving.

Eucharistic Adoration

The Eucharist is described in the Catechism as the "source and summit" of our faith. Finding the time to go to Adoration can be difficult. But if you can make it happen, committing to regular Adoration with an open heart can have some surprising results.

A Holy Hour before the Most Blessed Sacrament repairs for evils of the world. (St.John Paul II)

A Holy hour makes our souls more glorious and beautiful in heaven. (Mother Teresa )

The greatest love story of all time is contained in a tiny white host. (Venerable Fulton Sheen)

I ask everyone to intensify in love and devotion to the Eucharistic Jesus. (Pope Benedict XVI)

We are in need of visitors and hourly adorers to maintain our current adoration schedule. Please consider keeping Jesus company in our intimate chapel here at Holy Cross Parish which is open weekdays 9:00am to 7:00pm. For more information, call Eileen at 610.213-3369.
