FROM THE PASTOR

Don't forget, the Knights are sponsoring their semi-annual pancake breakfast this Sunday morning. Stop on over after Mass for some good food and socializing with your fellow parishioners. The price of admission is incredibly reasonable—cheaper than you'd get at a local restaurant.

Here we are at Thanksgiving week already! It's the last Sunday of the Church's liturgical year, and next week we begin the Advent Season. November is flying by. On behalf of everyone at Holy Cross, Happy Thanksgiving to you and your families!

As we celebrate our national day of gratitude, we give thanks to God for all His graces and blessings. What better way to do that as Catholics than to join in our communal worship of God and the solemn act of Thanksgiving that is the Eucharist? Mass on Thanksgiving Day will be celebrated at 8:30am. Please note, however, that there will not be Mass on Friday morning. The parish offices will be closed Thursday and Friday so that all of our staff can spend time with their families and friends.

It's also time to think about Christmas shopping. Please remember our Scrip program as you consider your holiday gift-giving. If you like to give gift cards as Christmas gifts, you can buy them through the parish office or via the RaiseRight app. Holy Cross receives a rebate on your purchase which we use for tuition assistance. If you're not using scrip, you're throwing away free money! Please call Terry at the parish office if you'd like more information.

Be sure to mark your calendars for the first annual Advent Lessons and Carols concert. Our choir will treat us to a refreshing time of sacred music and readings on Sunday, December 11, at 4:00 pm. The Knights will host a light supper afterward. Amid the hustle and bustle of the month of December, I think this will be a great opportunity for reflection and rest.

Speaking of Advent, we will again have extra times for Confession during Advent. Confessions will be heard on Thursday mornings from 7:00-8:00am during Advent (December 1, 8, 15, and 22). Confessions will also be heard on Sunday morning, December 18, from 9:30-10:45 am and on Monday evening, December 19, from 7:00-8:00 pm.

Have a great week, everyone! Happy Thanksgiving!

Our Lord Jesus Christ the King

Reading I: 2 Samuel 5: 1-3

David is hailed as king of all the tribes, and then he is anointed. A singular event in Israel's history.

Reading II: Colossians 1: 12-20

This section contains an introduction, followed by the lyrics of an ancient Christian hymn. The cross of Christ leads us away from the power of darkness to the kingdom of light.

The Gospel: Luke 23: 35-43

Note the downward trek of Our Lord's detractors. First, there are the religious leaders; then soldiers, and finally one of the two criminals flanking the central cross.

The Corner

Brought to you by your Evangelization Team

The last Sunday of each liturgical year celebrates the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, or Christ the King.

Did you know.....

Pope Pius XI instituted this feast in 1925 in response to growing secularism and atheism. Among other things, it reminds us that while governments come and go, Christ reigns as King forever.

---excerpted from website of USCCB (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops)

Holy Cross Giving Trees

We have two trees again this year. The recipients of Giving Tree on Mary's side are the families from Delaware County Pregnancy Center in Chester (depccchester.org).

The recipients of the tree on St. Joseph's side are the elderly poor residents of Holy Family Home, 5300 Chester Ave., Philadelphia. The home is served by the Little Sisters of the Poor.

If you would like to donate to either, their requests are listed on the ornaments.

Gifts can be put into gift bags and placed under the tree.

The last day to bring a gift is Sunday, December 11th. Thank you for your generosity!

Holy Cross School News

Holy Cross Students had a day off on Friday, November 11, to have our faculty trained in CPR and First Aid. The staff participated in training for adult and pediatric CPR. With this training completed, Holy Cross School is on the way to getting our Pre-K and CARES licensed in the State of Pa. Thank you to our teachers and staff who participated in this training.

Teachers are working hard as they prepare for Middle States re-accreditation. This is a time consuming but necessary process for our school. We appreciate all our teachers who work so hard for our school and students.

Our Kindergarten students are hard at work in their classrooms. In keeping with the season, the students are working on their "I am Thankful" journals. They are also learning about the seasons and working on their numbers, one through twenty. We have great students and wonderful teachers. Thank you, Mrs. McGuigan and her teaching assistant, Mrs. Eileen Gardner, and Miss Coleman and her assistant, Mrs. Diana Oropeza.

In this season of Thanksgiving we are thankful for all our wonderful teachers and staff who make Holy Cross School a wonderful place for our students.
