FROM THE PASTOR

If you were at the 4:30 Mass last weekend, you may have noticed that I was a bit “off” during Mass. I spent most of the Mass with my eyes closed and kind of rushing through the prayers, and I’m still not even sure if the homily was coherent. We had a wedding earlier in the day for a truly lovely couple. Unfortunately, the photographer they hired chose to disregard our rules about flash photography and set up multiple tripods with bright flashes on them. Every picture they took brought with it a bright flash of light, and of course from up front I’m staring right at the bulbs. They took a lot of pictures, so it was a constant barrage of bright flashes of light. For me, that’s a perfect recipe to trigger a migraine attack, and by the opening prayer, my head was in a vice and elephants were dancing on my brain. It was either soldier through the 4:30 Mass as best as I could or cancel and leave everyone scrambling to find another place to worship. Apologies if the Mass was a less-than-edifying experience.

By the time you read this, our 2023 Craft Fair will have come to a close. I want to thank Carol Dunleavy for her hard work as Craft Fair chairperson, coordinating with vendors, helping to set up stalls in the gym, and being on-site for the better part of two days to make sure it’s all a success. I also want to thank the members of our Fundraising Committee and all the parishioners who lent a hand setting up the gym, cooking/serving food at the snack bar, and cleaning up afterward. It’s a lot of work borne by a small handful of people.

I also want to thank everyone who attended the 11:00 Mass last Sunday with Bishop McIntyre. It’s always a blessing for a bishop to come and celebrate the Eucharist. Many stopped by the vestibule afterward to greet the bishop as well, and I’m sure he appreciated the opportunity to meet our parishioners as well. Before Mass, we heard some of the choral prelude that our choir was singing, and the bishop remarked that the choir sounds wonderful. I agree. We are blessed to have that dedicated group enhancing our worship and for the leadership and musical talent that Grete offers as our music director.

This week, our school will be visited by a team of educational professionals as part of our Middle States re-accreditation process. Being an accredited institution means that there are educational standards that our school upholds. It shows that Holy Cross School is capable of providing a quality education to all of our students. Many of our faculty have been working hard for several months to put together evidence that shows we meet and exceed the standards and chart a plan for further growth. We’re happy to welcome the team so they can see our school in action for a few days and meet with our teachers, students, and administrators. It will be a busy week. (But then again, I think just about every week is a busy week in some way around here.....)

Ordinary Time

Reading I: Malachi 1: 14b-2:2b, 8-10

The prophet accuses the priests of disregarding God’s ways, thereby leading the people astray. They had forgotten that Israel is God’s extended family.

Reading II: 1 Thessalonians 2: 7b-9, 13

Paul urges the community to consider the conduct of the apostles among them as self-supporting men. He also offers thanks that they were receptive of God’s word preached by those same apostles.

The Gospel: Matthew 23:1-12

Jesus strongly criticizes the scribes and Pharisees for not practicing what they preach. He then reinforces His position by His teaching on humility.

School News

November is here and so are the sights and sounds of autumn. We have had a great month with our clubs running and giving our students some wonderful activities and possibilities to participate in school. Our faculty, staff, and volunteers are happy to bring back old and new clubs for our students. We are enjoying the extra time we get to spend with our students as they learn and explore these new opportunities.

Our virtue that we are asking students to practice this month is Respect: The process or result of following rules to fairly judge and listen to authority.

This year each student will have the opportunity to contribute a spiritual donation of a Work of Mercy or good deed to write down and offer up to God at the Thanksgiving Prayer Basket. This is something special for all our students to participate in so they can have an opportunity to be closer to the Lord by offering their personal Work of Mercy or good deeds.

The feast days this month include All Saints, All Souls, St. Charles Borromeo, Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome, St. Leo the Great, St. Martin of Tours, St. Josaphat, St. Elizabeth of Hungary, Solemnity of Christ, King of the Universe, The Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, St. Cecilia, St. Andrew Dũng-Lạc and Companions. This will signal the end of Ordinary Time, and Our Liturgical New Year Begins with Advent on Sunday, November 27.

Through our practice of the virtue of respect and other works this month we are reaching out to a friend who needs to know that God loves them, as we all continue to grow the family and spirit of Holy Cross School.

Eucharistic Adoration

The Eucharist is described in the Catechism as the "source and summit" of our faith. Finding the time to go to Adoration can be difficult. But if you can make it happen, committing to regular Adoration with an open heart can have some surprising results.

A Holy Hour before the Most Blessed Sacrament repairs for evils of the world. (St.John Paul II)

A Holy hour makes our souls more glorious and beautiful in heaven. (Mother Teresa)

The greatest love story of all time is contained in a tiny white host. (Venerable Fulton Sheen)

I ask everyone to intensify in love and devotion to the Eucharistic Jesus. (Pope Benedict XVI)

We are in need of visitors and hourly adorers to maintain our current adoration schedule. Please consider keeping Jesus company in our intimate chapel here at Holy Cross Parish which is open weekdays 9:00am to 7:00pm. For more information, call Eileen at 610.213-3369.
