Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Let's pretend for a bit and project our times backward to the days of the Apostles before the resurrection where our gospel passage finds us. A young reporter named Rebekah for "Action News Jerusalem" is dispatched to interview ordinary people who have become followers of Jesus. Given a tip by Mordecai, the assignment editor, about a group of 12 who are currently in town, she asks a certain man named Thomas what the group is discussing at their meeting. Thomas shyly replies, "We're trying to decide which of us is the greatest?"

Rebekah replies, "Our sources tell us that's the kind of question that your Leader disdains. Isn't that true?" Just then the Leader Himself comes into camera range. Rebekah notes the man's good looks and regal bearing despite His drab clothes and asks him straight away "Sir, don't you dislike talk of privilege and position among your followers?" "Surely", He replies, in a voice that could enrapture any audience. These men are good people, but they have a lot to learn about My perspective on things."

He goes further. "Rebekah, may I call you that?" "Certainly," she says, "our viewers call me that, and we're anxious for your thoughts."

Jesus at this point calls a little boy over from a group playing tag. Putting His arms around the boy's shoulders, He looks into the camera while also addressing His young followers and says, "Look, guys, and those of you watching on TV or online right now, "If you really want to be first, you've got to choose the last place. And if you receive a child like this boy here in My Name, respecting His innocence and his not angling for a position, you will be really receiving Me. Or even better, you will be receiving the One, the Person I call "Father" or "Abba" (Daddy) who sent Me. And we will always have your back."

TV reporter Rebekah, taking back her mike, says into the camera, "Well, there you have it, everybody, an unexpected drop- in conversation with the Man himself, Jesus of Nazareth. Now back to our studio. I'm Rebekkah in Jerusalem for Channel 144, Action News."

I trust that you here and now can see the major point of the gospel that I tried to dramatize. True greatness comes from acknowledging who we are in God's eyes, not the eyes of fellow human beings. Setting goals like climbing social or corporate ladders, wishing for fame and fortune, or flaunting our possessions is so much a pursuit of nonsense. As for so many other teachings in Christ's Church, humility is key. "The person with true humility never has to be shown his place; he is always in it."

God loves you and give you His peace.

25th
Sunday in Ordinary
Time

Reading I: Wisdom 2:12, 17-20

The wicked, in this case apostate Jews, want to make power the norm of goodness. This to allow them to persecute the just man, because his lifestyle is a silent reproach to theirs.

Reading II: James 3: 16 -4:3

The author provides the qualities of true wisdom, and then the causes of war and strife among peoples.

The Gospel: Mark 9: 30-37

Jesus foretells His coming passion and death. Meanwhile His disciples discuss a completely unrelated matter that needs Jesus' input.

The Corner

Brought to you by your Evangelization Team

"I will make you fishers of men." ---Matthew 4:19

This is one of the best one-liners in Scripture. Notice the first part: "I will make you..." In today's culture, everyone wants to invent and define their own reality. But Jesus puts this lie to bed. We learn from Him that it's God who acts, and if we give ourselves over to His creative power, He will make us into something far better than we could ever imagine.

Food Pantry Update

Our Food Pantry's hours are now 3:45 - 5:30 on Wednesdays. This enables more safety and less traffic during school closure time. Father Kiernan has solved our challenge on how to keep the Food Pantry in operation while the construction work is done on our school. The Food Pantry volunteers and Neighbors in Need really appreciate his intercession. We are still operating behind the school and folks are directed to a shorter path to collect their food.

If you are able, we are in need of the following items (no glass please) including: cereal, oatmeal, pancake mix, syrup, peanut butter & jelly, rice, beans, pasta and pasta sauce, mac & cheese, canned meats, stews, spaghetti, soup, kiddie snacks and personal items (deodorant, soap, shampoo).

If you know anyone in Delco in need of food, please let them know our hours and that we are still a drive-thru.

Thank you for All You Do to support our pantry all year through your prayers and support.

God Bless You,
Your Friends from the St. Vincent dePaul Holy Cross Food Pantry

CAN YOU NOT SPEND 1 HOUR WITH ME??

The Eucharistic miracles Lanciano in Italy occurred in the 8th century. A certain priest developed doubts about Christ's presence in Eucharist. One day after consecration, during Mass, the wine and bread visibly turned into blood and flesh. This was preserved through the centuries. In 1970-71 and in 1981, scientist Odoardo Linoli, a professor of pathological histology, clinical microscopy and chemistry as well as anatomy, investigated the miracle.

The professor came to the conclusion that the flesh was cardiac tissue containing veins, nerve fibers and arterioles. The blood type matched with the blood type of other Eucharistic miracles, namely AB. The WHO too verified the finding of the Italian doctors, and after 500 examinations expressed the inability of science to explain Eucharistic miracles Lanciano.

The Rite of Christian initiation for Adults is the process for people of other faith traditions, those not baptized or not baptized and baptized Catholics who want to refresh their faith or complete their Sacraments.

RCIA is a journey where a person encounters Jesus Christ and begins the conversion to the Catholic Faith. Each meeting is designed to stimulate a person both intellectually and spiritually. We explore numerous aspects of the Catholic Faith through the bible and other reading material.

If you are interested in exploring your faith or know someone is looking to renew their faith in the Church, please contact Deacon Tom Taylor at deacontom2011@gmail.com
